Program Description

The Agricultural Business, Leadership, and Education major is a shared curriculum coupling science with business. In conjunction with the Business department at CWI, this program is appropriate for students with interests in a wide range of fields including the following:

- Extension educator
- Agriculture sales
- Agriculture business management
- Public relations
- Journalism

Completion of this program will prepare students for entry into a diversity of occupations, as well as transfer to four-year universities and professional programs. Additionally, completion of this program at CWI allows for direct transfer into the University of Idaho's Agricultural Science, Communication, and Leadership four-year degree. Students are encouraged to contact their advisors and their future transfer institution (if known) for additional information regarding course selection.
