- Write effectively in a variety of rhetorical contexts, paying attention to audience, voice, and style appropriate to an academic research setting.
- Demonstrate higher-order thinking skills including analysis, synthesis, and creativity.
- Reflect on their learning experiences and create a project that synthesizes and communicates what they have learned over the course of their program of study.
- Contemplate and communicate diverse perspectives from multiple disciplines within their field of study.

Z-Degree Pathway For General Studies Majors

The courses included in a Z-degree Pathway below offer at least one class section that uses one of the following types of course materials/textbooks:

Classification of Instructional Materials	Cost to Student
Open Education Resources (OER)	$0
Low-Cost Textbook	$30 or less

- Open Education Resources: According to the Idaho State Board of Education, Open Education Resources (OER) are "teaching, learning, and research materials that reside in the public domain or have been released under an intellectual property license, such as a Creative Commons license, that permits free use and repurposing by others." OER have no cost to students and are available on the first day of class.
- Low-Cost Textbooks: Required textbooks and/or other course materials that cost the student a total of $30 or less (excluding special course fees) per class and may be purchased at the CWI Bookstore.

Please note that not all sections of a particular course will utilize OER, as notated in the table below. Students can verify that a specific section uses OER or low-cost textbooks by looking for the following symbol next to the section listing in Student Planning at the time of registration:

IMPORTANT: There may be changes to the courses utilizing OER or low-cost textbooks throughout the academic year. Students should always refer to Student Planning in myCWI for the most up-to-date Z-degree class information.
