

INSTRUCTIONAL SCHOOLS

College of Western Idaho has six instructional schools, each containing their own departments and programs. These schools include:

- School of Arts and Humanities
- School of Business, Communication, and Technology
- School of Health
- School of Industry, Engineering, and Trades
- School of Math and Science
- School of Social Sciences and Public Affairs

Please view the school pages for detailed information regarding departments and programs contained within each.