

WELCOME

The purpose of the College of Western Idaho (CWI) course catalog is to provide information about CWI for prospective and current students, faculty and staff, and interested educational institutions or agencies. CWI has made reasonable effort to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time of publication.

This catalog is not to be considered a binding contract. The College reserves the right to—at any time and without advance notice—withdraw or cancel courses and majors, change fee schedules, change the academic calendar, change admission and registration requirements, change the regulations and requirements governing instruction in and graduation from the College, and change any other regulations that affect students. Changes shall go into force whenever the proper authorities so determine and shall apply to both prospective students and students matriculated at the time of the change. The College shall try to advertise advance notice of changes when economic and other conditions permit. The courses contained in this catalog do not preclude or limit the College in its offerings for any semester or session. Addendums to the catalog will be published on the CWI website, when necessary.

It is the policy of CWI to provide equal educational and employment opportunities, services, and benefits to students and employees without regard to age, race, color, national origin, sex, religion, and/or disability, in accordance with the Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Educational Amendment of 1972; Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; Age Discrimination Act of 1975; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990; and all other applicable state and federal nondiscrimination statutes. Appropriate consideration shall be given to veterans in accordance with applicable state and federal laws and regulations. CWI prohibits all forms of retaliation for filing complaints of illegal discrimination or harassment.
